GOD'S WORD FOR ME

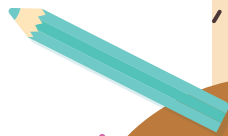

"All Scripture is given by God and is useful for teaching and for showing people what is wrong in their lives." 2 Timothy 3:16

STORY TIME

If you want to tell your friend something, what do you do? That's right. You go up to that person and say, "Hey, I want to tell you something." Then you share a funny story, whisper a secret, or let them know about what you learned in school today. It's fun.

But what if your friend lived far away? What if they moved to a city that was in another state or even another country?

Look at the pictures and circle what you would use to share your thoughts with your faraway friend. Maybe you would use all three!

When Jesus lived on this earth, He talked to people face-to-face. He went right up to them and said, "Hello. How are you doing? Are you happy today?" Then the people would say things like, "Oh, I'm sick today," or, "Oh, I'm lonely today," or, "Oh, I don't know what to do with a big problem I have in my life." Jesus would nod His head slowly, think for a minute, and then He'd say something kind and loving to them. He'd heal their sickness. He'd be their Friend so they wouldn't be lonely anymore. He'd talk to them about their problem until they decided what to do. Jesus loved to talk to people.

DRAW A PICTURE OF JESUS TALKING TO SOMEONE.

Maybe it's someone sick in bed or sitting alone in a field of flowers. Maybe it's a person in a boat. You decide:

Now Jesus lives in Heaven. But He still wants to talk to us. He still wants to tell us how to get well when we're sick. He still wants to help us with our problems. He still wants to show us that He is our Friend. How does He do that?

Does He use this?

Does He use this?

Does He write us a letter?

DRAW A PICTURE OF YOUR BIBLE.

Be sure to put the words "Holy Bible" on the cover. You can design the cover and include decorations. Or you can draw yourself reading your Bible. At the bottom of the picture, write the words, "God's Letter to Me."

LIBRARY

- “All your children will be taught by the Lord. And they will have much peace” (Isaiah 54:13).
- “Come to me, all of you who are tired and have heavy loads. I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28).
- “I leave you peace. ... Don’t be afraid” (John 14:27).
- “I will bring back your health. And I will heal your injuries” (Jeremiah 30:17).

MY FRIEND ELLEN WROTE

When Ellen White was a little girl, she wanted to learn all she could about God. So, she asked Jesus to come into her heart and be her Teacher. Through the books that Ellen wrote after she became an adult, that helped to start the Seventh-day Adventist Church, God has been able to teach other people about Himself, too.

Here is what Ellen wrote about the Bible, God’s Holy Book:

“In childhood, youth, and manhood, Jesus studied the Scriptures. As a little child He was daily at His mother’s knee taught from the scrolls of the prophets. In His youth the early morning and the evening twilight often found Him alone on the mountainside or among the trees of the forest, spending a quiet hour in prayer and the study of God’s word” (Education, p. 185).

IDEA

Why not choose a quiet place in your house to spend a few moments each day thinking about God? You could read or listen to a story about Him too.
